

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN WINE INDUSTRY
ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED

Explanation of Official Membership Criteria for the South Australian Wine Industry Association Incorporated

Membership Category:

Ordinary Membership - is open to any person, firm or company, manufacturing for sale Australian wine, wine products, brandy, grape spirit or grape juice, or growing winegrapes for the manufacture of such product'.

Associate Membership - is open to persons, substantially interested in the promotion of Australian wine or wine industry and in the production or sale by wholesale of Australian wine, wine products, brandy, grapes, grape spirit or grape juice, who, in the opinion of members, shall have aims or objects substantially the same as the aims or objects of the Association.

What does it cost?

For Ordinary Members, subscriptions are calculated on three components:

- Total hectares grown x rate per hectare
- Tonnes crushed x rate per tonne
- Value of wine sales in South Australia x rate per $1000 of sales

There is a minimum subscription rate per annum (plus GST). There is also a maximum subscription fee. This process ensures an equitable spread of fees across small, medium and large businesses. For Associate Members, the subscription is the minimum rate per annum (plus GST).

Subscriptions are annual commencing on 1 July each year and are calculated on a pro-rata basis for those joining part way through a year.
